MACKIN'S STRIPES.

The Chicago Election Returns Manipulator Convicted of Perjury and Sentenced.

He Will Serve the State for Five Years for False Testimony Given Before the Grand Jury.

In His Attempt to Escape Responsibility for His Election Fraud Crimes.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 1.—Mr. Emery A. Storrs made the opening statement for the defense in the case of Joseph C. Mackin, on trial for alleged perjury. The counsel declared that the State would have to show that the special Grand Jury which indicted Mackin was legally impaneled, and that the perjury was deliberately committed, or they would also have to show that the printing of the election tickets found in the Eighteenth Ward ballot-box was an offense. The State would also have to prove that Mackin really took the genuine ballots from the unopened box in the County Clerk's office and substituted his own ones.

The prosecution submitted the records, showing the impaneling of the Grand Jury and then called A. H. Beardsey, a member of the Grand Jury, who testified that Mackin had sworn before the Grand Jury that he had not ordered the printing of the ballots and denied meeting the Wrights, who printed the tickets, as they had agreed.

Mr. S. P. Wright, printer, was next called and examined by Mr. Storrs. He testified that on the 31st of November last, he printed 2,000 election tickets on an order from Mr. J. C. Mackin.

"In what way did he give the order?" asked Mr. Storrs.

"He was about two o'clock in the afternoon and wanted to know if we could print tickets similar to one he showed me. The ticket was the regular Republican with Leman's name scratched on it. Rudolph Brand's name written upon it. He said it was to be used as soon as it was possible and wanted me to agree to the engraving myself. I turned the work over to Jerry Thompson, who came in at that time, in the presence of Mackin. Thompson took in charge, punctuating the head and entire ticket, with the exception of one change in the name of one of the candidates. The work was finished at nine o'clock in the evening, and accompanied by my brother William H. Wright, I delivered them to Mr. Mackin at his room in the Palmer House. Nothing was said in regard to the contents of the package by Mr. Mackin or myself. He simply thanked me for being prompt."

William H. Wright corroborated this testimony and Jerry Thompson testified to nearly the same effect.

Five Years Imprisonment.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 2.—The jury in the Mackin perjury case returned yesterday afternoon, having been out exactly an hour, with a verdict of guilty. The punishment fixed was five years' imprisonment in the Penitentiary. As the last words of the verdict were pronounced Mackin slightly paled and clasped his hands together as if he was in pain, but this lasted but a moment and he chatted smilingly with his brother. The jury was unanimous from the start as to Mackin's guilt, and there was very little discussion of the term of imprisonment. The delay in reaching a verdict—an hour—was caused from the fact that the jury sent for and rejected one part of the evidence. The prisoner reached Center Avenue. Those who had been held behind and was surrounded by the crowd. The officers were compelled to abandon it, and it was thrown from the track by the mob and upset in the street. Skinner, the driver, was taken into a patrol wagon and safety thus insured. The horses were taken in charge by one of the striking conductors and led back to the barn.

A few minutes later a patrol wagon was driven to the scene of the trouble, when the captured car was righted. It was then learned that the patrol wagon and driver were beaten up in the rear. The other two succeeded in reaching the barn with little difficulty.

On the Halsted street line, four attempts were made late in the afternoon to start out cars, but every time a car appeared a crowd of seven or eight hundred men and women, mostly men, shouting and other hardy sons of toil, were in waiting.

Won Their Fight.

NEW YORK, July 2.—The coopers employed by a number of cooperages throughout the city were successful yesterday, after being on a strike since May 1, in obtaining an increase of wages. The men on the strike numbered about three hundred and fifty, and were employed by twenty-eight different firms. They had been receiving three cents a barrel, and could average $20 per week. It was decided to demand an increase of one cent per barrel. While the workmen were holding their usual meeting yesterday, word was received that the employer intended to grant the increase, and it was decided to grant the increase. This was reported at the meeting of the workmen, and, after giving cheers, they decided to return to the work.

A GOOD SELECTION.

A Woman Appointed One of the Summer Corps of Physicians.

NEW YORK, July 2.—Dr. Mary O. Fredericks has been appointed by the Board of Health as one of the summer corps of physicians. She was the only woman appointed in the corps of twenty-three. Dr. Fredericks is the third woman who has been appointed to the board. At the time of her appointment she was a member of the National Health Association, or the streetcar company, to avoid such complications, might make a concise statement to the public setting forth the reasons for the public setting forth the reasons for the discharge of the sixteen employees, which were holding their usual meeting yesterday, word was received that the employer intended to grant the increase, and it was decided to grant the increase. This was reported at the meeting of the workmen, and, after giving cheers, they decided to return to the work.

Exploded Her Boiler.

TROY, N. Y., July 2.—The steam yacht Otis Smith blew up while lying at the dock at eleven o'clock yesterday morning. The explosion was tremendous, and several persons were injured, by George Robert, engineer, who was just going on board, was severely injured. No one else was hurt. The fire was banked last night, and the theory of the explosion is that some malicious person went aboard and closed the doors and fastened down the safety valve. The boiler was new and in good condition.

To Hang in August.

TROY, N. Y., July 2.—Horace Jones' execution was yesterday fixed by Judge Peckham for August 1st. Jones shot and killed his wife on the 4th of July last. He was convicted last fall in the County Court, but the case was carried to the Court of Appeals, which reaffirmed the sentence of the lower.

The San Francisco Report says:

"Of the California University at Berkeley out of a total of 517 students 319 are embryo lawyers." If other institutions of the Golden State furnish a like quota there is in the near future likely to be universal litigation on a goodly number of hungry, briefless lawyers. Such a condition is not the fault of ambitious young men, but of fathers and mothers and the people who by their acts have said to every young man, "If you desire honors from the public seek the law."

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND said to a reporter: "I am not a bit tired." But he ought to think of the hundreds of thousands of fellows who have taken the Bible injunction and asked, but have not received. Tired won't begin to express it: they are totally undone and fearfully tired.

A Queer Citizen.

ED. GARRISON, a butcher by occupation, was before Judge Greer in the county court last evening charged with being insane and a citizen who ought to be confined and treated for his malady. The jurymen were Dr. S. Cooper, Michael Troutman, Joseph B. Winebrenner, D. L. Hughes, Mr. Hoover and W. H. Storh. A number of witnesses who claimed to know all about Garrison and his queer notions and actions testified that he had acted strangely for several weeks, doting from the time when he was released from the county jail, the grand jury having failed to find an indictment against him for adultery. He was in jail about six weeks, and when he came out he was morose and despondent. He would walk about alone, muttering to himself, looked wild and dangerous at times; believed that varmints were crawling about him to do him injury; kept on getting worse every day, though there were Indian spells when he appeared sociable and sane; one night he got a razor to kill the imaginary varmints, and to protect himself against a carriage load of men he thought were in the street after him; he thought the varmints were four-legged animals; he had a room in the house he claimed as his own, and said he had the deed for it; there was no furniture in it. Of nights he was up and down and slept but little. When friends wanted him to go to his brother, Garrison said he owned all of Decatur and Chicago and that he would not be taken away. This and much other such testimony was offered. Garrison is a single man, not addicted to the use of liquor, and has been making his home in the Davis property on East Wood street, occupied by the Hobson, Burton and other families. The jury returned a verdict finding Garrison insane and he was returned to jail.

A Distressing Case.

Prof. C. T. Castelman, having a wife and three children, who has been a resident of Decatur since May 26th, when he arrived here from Virginia on his way to Tipton, Mo., is now in custody of the officers and will be confined until his friends arrive from Virginia to take him back home. The Professor is a fine-looking, well educated man of about 35, and until he started west in May was a member of the faculty at the Leesburg Military Academy, in Virginia. Through over-work—his spare hours were spent in keeping a set of books—the Professor failed in health and his mind became deranged. He became violent when he arrived here on the Wabash, May 26th, and it was deemed best that the family should remain in Decatur for a time. They commenced housekeeping in a dwelling on West Prairie street. The family had arranged to leave Decatur to-day for Virginia. Last night Secretary Mann, of the Y. M. C. A., who had become acquainted with the Professor, went to the house to remain with him. Mrs. Castelman retired as did also the children. During the night the Professor became very violent, and getting a revolver he started toward the room occupied by his wife and children, with the avowed intention of killing them. Mr. Mann, realizing the danger, succeeded in getting possession of the revolver, and with the aid of neighbors the deranged man was kept under restraint until the arrival of Officers Hawes and Woodbridge, who took the Professor to the county jail and placed him in a debtor's room. The friends of the family have been telegraphed to come and take charge of the unfortunate man.

The umpire on the 4th will be Charley Horsley. He is a fair man, prompt in giving his decisions.

Managers Starr & Schroll will see that outsiders, who are so mean that they will not pay entrance fee, do not get a dead-head view of the ground in future. George Downing and A. Weber are the opposing captains of picked nines playing a free game of ball at the Park this afternoon. The limit is 50 runs on each side.
